IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS FAMILY HISTORY

This family history is not complete or correct.

It can't be—time blurs the details, secrets remain hidden, investigations hit dead ends, babies are born, and people die, marry, and divorce with unpredictable frequency. It also takes time for family members to confirm or correct its contents.

Consequently, at best, this is a work-in-process...like the family itself.

WHO'S INCLUDED AND WHO'S NOT?

For the oldest ancestor, the person at the start of the bloodline, and his descendants...

This family history INCLUDES all the known:

- Children, both male and female, including those who are:
  - Illegitimate
  - Legally adopted
  - Step (added to the family through marriage)
  - Taken in (unofficially added to the family)
- Brothers and sisters
- Legal spouses and other partners including those who are a:
  - Common law wife or life partner
  - Biological parent of a child who is not a biological child of the descendant
- Parents of a spouse or partner

This family history EXCLUDES all the known:

- Children of a descendant's brother or sister
- Brothers and sisters or a descendant's spouse or partner
- Grandparents of the descendant's spouse or partner

Note that these genealogical rules do not trace the line by the family name, nor do they favor biological children, nor do they make any distinction between male and female descendants.

HOW IS THIS FAMILY HISTORY ORGANIZED?

...By the nuclear families—the descendant, his spouse, and his children—where each nuclear-family section contains:

- A family tree showing the descendant's family, his parents, and his spouse's parents
- Key facts about the members of the nuclear family (marriage date, birth dates, etc.)
- Photos and historical documents that apply to the nuclear family as a whole (to avoid duplication)

At the end of the document, there's:

- A bibliography that lists research sources

- A name index that lists all the names found in the family history
- A place index, and lists all the places found in the family history
- a traditional family tree (a descendant chart) that show everyone in the family

WHAT CONVENTIONS ARE USED?

Most of the kinds of relationships in this history—parents, grandparents, great grandparents, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles—are well known; however, there are some that are not:

- Greats
Rather than repeat the word "great" for each generation, they are numbered. For example, a great grandfather is the first great grandfather, a great great grandfather is the second great grandfather, and so on. This applies to great aunts and uncles as well.
- Cousins -
First cousins have the same grandparents; second cousins have the same great grandparents; third cousins have the same great great grandparents, and so on.
- Removed
The parents of first cousins are first-cousins-once-removed, that is, one generation removed; the grandparents of a first cousin are the first-cousins-twice-removed, that is, two generation's removed, and so on.
- In-Laws
The term in-law identifies a legal rather than a biological relationship, such as a mother-in-law or a brother-in-law. We often drop this when referring to an aunt, uncle, or cousin, or replace it with the words "by marriage" such as in "my cousin by marriage."

This history assigns a unique number to the oldest ancestor and his descendants. It appears in the family tree, various lists, and the text.

Descendants appear in birth order—oldest first.

The family history uses three kinds of images—profiles, pictures, and documents. Profiles are thumbnails faces, pictures are important images, documents are key records. All three are linked to an individual, but picture and documents are only shown once at the end of each family section to avoid duplication.

The abbreviations [fnu] and [lnu] stand for “first name unknown” and “last name unknown.”

I try to use the “best” pictures I have for descendants. By “best,” I mean the one that shows what the person looked like for most of his or her life. However, when all I have is a “kid picture” or an “old person picture,” that’s what I use.

HOW CAN I SEE THE FAMILY HISTORY ONLINE?

...Through ancestry.com under the family name. I keep the family tree database on my computer and sync its public data with ancestry.com, I never sync or share the private date in the database—current addresses, medical histories, birth certificates, divorce information, etc.

HOW CAN I ADD, CHANGE, OR REMOVE DATA?

...Send me an email or a letter. I will either make the change myself or add you an editor on ancestry.com. Ancestry.com will automatically sync your changes to the database on my computer.

If you want to maintain the family tree or a branch of the tree yourself, send me an email or a letter and I will send you the appropriate computer file.

Contessa Entellina

The members of the Barone Family in this family history are all from Contessa Entellina, Sicily (aka Kundisa). This modified description from contessaentellina.net provides some background.

Albanian soldiers under the command of Giorgio and Basilio Reres of Epiros, the sons of the military governor of Calabria, Demetrios Reres, used the location between 1450 and 1462 as a military camp for themselves and their families. After leasing the land in 1462 from Count Alfonso Cardona, they built a permanent village named "Contessa" in honor of Countess Cardona of Chiusa Sclafani. "Entellina" was added in modern times when the borders of village were expanded to include lands around the Rocco Entella mountain. Between about 1469 and 1520 the village received an influx of new settlers known as "Coroni". At first, they were mostly Albanian and Greek nobility from the region of the Peloponnese and later from many of the Greek islands. Many Albanian customs have survived, and many residents still speak Albanian "Tabresh," in addition to Italian and Sicilian.

In the late 1800's people in Contessa Entellina began to emigrate to American cities such as Chicago, New York, Sacramento, San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Jose, Newcastle, Stockton, Madison, Hammond, Independence, Tampa (Ybor City), Houston, and Dallas. The largest number went to New Orleans where, at one time, there were more "Contessioti" than in Contessa Entellina. Today, New Orleans still has the greatest concentration of Arbreshe-Americans in the U.S.
