IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS FAMILY HISTORY

This family history is not complete or correct.

It can't be—time blurs the details, secrets remain hidden, investigations hit dead ends, babies are born, and people die, marry, and divorce with unpredictable frequency. It also takes time for family members to confirm or correct its contents.

Consequently, at best, this is a work-in-process...like the family itself.

WHO'S INCLUDED AND WHO'S NOT?

For the oldest ancestor, the person at the start of the bloodline, and his descendants...

This family history INCLUDES all the known:

- Children, both male and female, including those who are:
  - Illegitimate
  - Legally adopted
  - Step (added to the family through marriage)
  - Taken in (unofficially added to the family)
- Brothers and sisters
- Legal spouses and other partners including those who are a:
  - Common law wife or life partner
  - Biological parent of a child who is not a biological child of the descendant
- Parents of a spouse or partner

This family history EXCLUDES all the known:

- Children of a descendant's brother or sister
- Brothers and sisters or a descendant's spouse or partner
- Grandparents of the descendant's spouse or partner

Note that these genealogical rules do not trace the line by the family name, nor do they favor biological children, nor do they make any distinction between male and female descendants.

HOW IS THIS FAMILY HISTORY ORGANIZED?

...By the nuclear families—the descendant, his spouse, and his children—where each nuclear-family section contains:

- A family tree showing the descendant's family, his parents, and his spouse's parents
- Key facts about the members of the nuclear family (marriage date, birth dates, etc.)
- Photos and historical documents that apply to the nuclear family as a whole (to avoid duplication)

At the end of the document, there's:

- A bibliography that lists research sources

- A name index that lists all the names found in the family history
- A place index, and lists all the places found in the family history
- a traditional family tree (a descendant chart) that show everyone in the family

WHAT CONVENTIONS ARE USED?

Most of the kinds of relationships in this history—parents, grandparents, great grandparents, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles—are well known; however, there are some that are not:

- Greats
Rather than repeat the word "great" for each generation, they are numbered. For example, a great grandfather is the first great grandfather, a great great grandfather is the second great grandfather, and so on. This applies to great aunts and uncles as well.
- Cousins -
First cousins have the same grandparents; second cousins have the same great grandparents; third cousins have the same great great grandparents, and so on.
- Removed
The parents of first cousins are first-cousins-once-removed, that is, one generation removed; the grandparents of a first cousin are the first-cousins-twice-removed, that is, two generation's removed, and so on.
- In-Laws
The term in-law identifies a legal rather than a biological relationship, such as a mother-in-law or a brother-in-law. We often drop this when referring to an aunt, uncle, or cousin, or replace it with the words "by marriage" such as in "my cousin by marriage."

This history assigns a unique number to the oldest ancestor and his descendants. It appears in the family tree, various lists, and the text.

Descendants appear in birth order—oldest first.

The family history uses three kinds of images—profiles, pictures, and documents. Profiles are thumbnails faces, pictures are important images, documents are key records. All three are linked to an individual, but picture and documents are only shown once at the end of each family section to avoid duplication.

The abbreviations [fnu] and [lnu] stand for “first name unknown” and “last name unknown.”

I try to use the “best” pictures I have for descendants. By “best,” I mean the one that shows what the person looked like for most of his or her life. However, when all I have is a “kid picture” or an “old person picture,” that’s what I use.

HOW CAN I SEE THE FAMILY HISTORY ONLINE?

...Through ancestry.com under the family name. I keep the family tree database on my computer and sync its public data with ancestry.com, I never sync or share the private date in the database—current addresses, medical histories, birth certificates, divorce information, etc.

HOW CAN I ADD, CHANGE, OR REMOVE DATA?

...Send me an email or a letter. I will either make the change myself or add you an editor on ancestry.com. Ancestry.com will automatically sync your changes to the database on my computer.

If you want to maintain the family tree or a branch of the tree yourself, send me an email or a letter and I will send you the appropriate computer file.

Godrano Sicily

Our ancestors are from the small municipality of Godrano, which is on a mountainside about 2,400 feet above sea-level near the city of Palermo in Sicily.

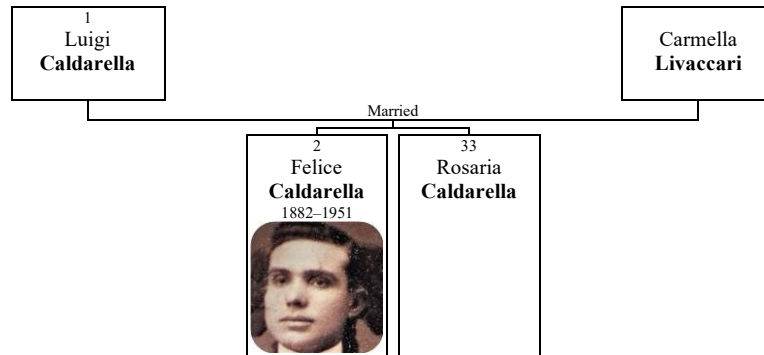

The history of Godrano is the history of Sicily. From 1194 until 1860, Norman, German, French, and Spanish conquerors ruled, with brief periods when Sicilians ruled themselves. In 1860, Giuseppe Garibaldi seized Palermo and made the city and eventually all of Sicily part of the United Kingdom of Italy. In 1943, the Allies bombed Palermo and quickly seized control of Italy from the Mussolini government then, just as quickly, returned control back to the Italians.

Palermo is the island's capital and it's chief port. It's here that most of Sicily's foreign trade occurs and where most tourism starts. Citrus fruits, cereals, fresh fish, and chemicals are the island's principal exports. Ship repair and the manufacture of chemicals, glass, cement, machinery, and processed foods are important industries.
