Gaeta Italy

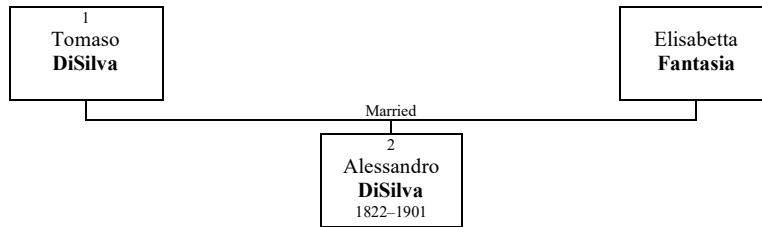

Gaeta—located about halfway between Rome and Naples—sits on a promontory in the Gulf of Ulysses below the rocky peak of Mt. Orlando. It is a special place with legends and history going back to the ancient Greeks and Romans.

As the summer playground for consuls, emperors, and patrician families for two thousand years, reminders of the past are everywhere including lavish Roman villas, gardens, temples, and the mausoleum of Lucio Munazio Planco, a Roman consul who died in 22 BC. There are also thirty-nine medieval churches in Gaeta, a remarkable number for such a small town. Borgo Elena is the old section of town; it has narrow lanes, little overhanging balconies, archways, and small locally owned shops and cafes.

The “American DiSilvas” in this family history came from Gaeta in the early 1900s.

Daren J. McDonald, 52, of Falmouth, MA, passed away suddenly at his home on June 10, 2021. Born in Lowell, MA and raised in Falmouth, Daren graduated from Falmouth High School in 1986 and attended the Stockbridge School of Agriculture at the University of Massachusetts.

He was a successful businessman, starting Clover Landscape in 1986 with a pick-up truck and a lawnmower and growing in into a business of over 50 employees and 25 trucks. He later started Clover Paving and was managing and growing the thriving asphalt company up until the time of his passing. As a prominent member of the Falmouth business community, Daren gave much of his time to the town and was known for his generosity, helping out with local events like the Christmas parade and sponsoring Falmouth's fireworks and historic road race.

Business success aside, Daren would say his greatest achievement was undoubtedly his family. He met his beloved wife Holly during the summer of 1989 on the Cape and they were married in 1999. He was proud father of Lilly and Daren Jr. and took great pleasure in watching their sporting events and touting their achievements. Whether it be Daren Jr.'s ice hockey success or Lilly's latest field hockey game, Daren rarely missed a game and was known to occasionally treat the whole team to dinner, families and all, to celebrate a win. A larger than life personality, Daren made every gathering feel like a party and would keep all entertained with his legendary dance moves like "the worm", or by creating a clever and personal rap about family and friends. The room was filled with smiles and laughter when Daren, or Big D or Sugar D as he was affectionately known to friends, was around. Daren was never happier than when he was surrounded by friends and family entertaining at his home or on his boat. He lived his life to the fullest, was positive and upbeat, and could often be heard commenting, "Today's going to be a great day!"

Daren felt one of the most important things in life was friendship and he assumed the role of a guardian angel to many over the years. He was always there to offer a job or a place to stay or advice to anyone in need and he changed many lives young and old for the better. He believed everyone deserved a chance and everyone deserved and needed a friend and would often say, "You have to be a friend to have a friend." He touched the lives of so many people and was often told by those he had helped along the way that they wouldn't be who they were if they hadn't met Daren.

In addition to his wife and children, Daren is survived by his mother, Deborah O'Brien and her husband Edward of Plymouth, and his father, Lawrence McDonald of East Falmouth. Daren will also be missed by his four siblings, Lawrence McDonald, Jr. and his wife Anabela of Panama; Greg McDonald and his wife Heidi of East Falmouth; Kurt McDonald and his wife Amanda of Falmouth and Veronica Williamson and her husband Gary of Duxbury. He was the beloved son-in-law of Joan and the late William T. Vrettas of Wayland and Falmouth, brother-in-law of William A. Vrettas, and his wife Jennifer of Milton and Glens Colman and her husband Fred of Needham. He was the adored and entertaining "Uncle D" to 15 nieces and nephews who will miss his greatly.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend visiting hours on Wednesday, June 16, 2021 from 4 – 7 p.m. at Chapman Funerals & Cremations, 475 Main Street, Falmouth. A Mass of Christian burial will be held Thursday, June 17, at 10:00 a.m. at Saint Anthony Church, 167 East Falmouth Highway, (Rte 28), East Falmouth.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Daren's memory for his children's college education may be made through the following link:
